Board of Management Policy Consultation Record

Please bring this completed form to your Board of Management meeting when considering a policy at BOM level for ratification. Please note that the Board of Management should only ratify a policy once the appropriate consultation process has been completed with students, staff and parents/guardians. More detailed records of consultation should be retained in the school.

In the case of consultation with staff please ensure that the staff have ratified the policy at a staff meeting and that the name of the proposer and seconder for the policy have been included in the minutes of that staff meeting.
